

Too Sexy Ex-Citibank Employee Gets Support: BeautifulJobSeekers.com Campaigning To Find Her A New Job

LOS ANGELES, JUNE 9 2010 – When we found out about the story of Debralee Lorenzana, the woman who got fired by Citibank for being too sexy, we just knew that we had to do something for her. Operating a job site for beautiful job seekers, we decided we had to launch a campaign for Ms. Lorenzana, to help her find a new job as soon as possible.

Don't Fire!

By launching our 'Don't Fire! But Hire! Beautiful Job Seekers' campaign and offer Ms. Lorenzana Honorary Membership to our website, we're hoping to support Ms. Lorenzana's job search. And not only hers for that matter. We support all beautiful people in the job market; we are here for them! Our mission is to help beautiful people with their careers. Get them into contact with employers who not only value their skills and talent, but who also value their looks.

But Hire!

We think it's ridiculous to fire beautiful people because of their looks! Since when is it wrong for a woman to be sexy? Of course, a sexy woman can be a huge distraction. We admit that! She can cause men to stumble over their own feet and such. But as long as the job gets done, we believe every woman should've the right to be as sexy as she wants to be!
